XXXIVth CONGRESS—First Session.

SENATE....WASHINGTON, Thursday, Feb 7.

REMAINS OF THE DEAD.

Mr. CLAY submitted a resolution directing the Committee on Naval Affairs to consider the expediency of an increase of the Navy.

PUBLIC PRINTING.

Mr. BAYARD introduced a bill providing for the public printing, engraving and binding.

APPROPRIATION BILLS.

The resolution directing the Committee on Finance to prepare and report the general appropriation bills was considered.

Mr. STUART said, that since the foundation of the Government, no Appropriation bill has originated in the Senate. It was an ancient and established principle, that the House of Representatives of the people, the democratic feature was borrowed from the British Constitution, as necessary, to secure public liberty, and the spirit of the Constitution requires that the old established plan shall be adhered to.

Mr. STUART contended that there was any difference in the question of appropriation bills, between bills for the relief of individuals and general appropriation bills. If the Senate could originate the French Spoliation bill, appropriating millions of dollars, why not one for the Military Academy?

Messrs. TOOMBS and TOUCEY supported the resolution.

Messrs. BRODHEAD and WILSON opposed it.

Mr. SUMNER said it was an inopportune time to propose such a great change, for the first time, when the popular branch of Congress promised to differ from the Senate on great questions of National policy.

The resolution was adopted—the object being to prevent a bill involving millions being hurriedly acted upon at the close of the session, sometimes without being read.

Adjourned till Monday.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, Feb. 7.

HOMESTEAD BILL.

Mr. GROW gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill to secure homesteads to actual settlers.

THE NAVAL BOARD.

Mr. MILLSON gave notice of the introduction of a bill to repeal the act authoring the establishment of the Naval Board.

The Speaker was authorized to appoint Standing Committees.

Mr. PENNINGTON, from the Joint Committee appointed to wait on the President, reported that the latter had expressed his high appreciation of the courtesy, and would be happy to cooperate with Congress in any measures promotive of the public interests.

THE HOUSE PRINTER.

Mr. CAMPBELL, of Ohio, moved a reconsideration of the resolution for the election of Printer.

Agreed to by 102 against 81.

Mr. CAMPBELL, of Ohio, made an ineffectual effort to consider the Senate's joint resolution for the relief of the poor of Washington and Georgetown.

The question then returned on the resolution forthwith to proceed to the election of Printer—pending which the House adjourned till Monday.

Forthcoming the Organization—Southern and Southern "Americans"—The Sergeant-at-Arms—The Postmaster—The Printery &c., &c.

Special Correspondence of the N. Y. Daily Times.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Feb. 5, 1856.

COMPLETION OF THE ORGANIZATION.

The organization of the House is quite complete, although the Printer is still to be elected. The Sergeant-at-Arms, in Frank Rue, Esq., COLLAMER, of Vermont, was elected Clerk, has a double significance. The election of Mr. BANKS after a nine weeks' struggle, unparalleled in Parliamentary history, and without the aid of a single Southern vote, has established the fact that there is a North. The election of Mr. ORR also shows conclusively that this North is not sectional, but can seek merit south of Mason and Dixon's line, and and give it substantial recognition when found. It shows, too, that the North is magnanimous, and not willing to retaliate the sectionalism of the South, but ready, on the contrary, to stand by the men of the South who are true to correct principles.

NOT TO BE TRUSTED.

How striking the contrast with the conduct of Southern men towards the "National" Americans from the Free States! These were induced to cast their lot with the "Americans" from the Slave States; and for nine weeks they stood by their Southern brethren, assured and reassured, time and again, that if they would sacrifice their position among the Anti-Nebraska men of the North, for the purpose of forming a distinct party, making Americanism the paramount question, they might rely, to the end, upon the cordial and distinct cooperation of the Southern Americans in such a movement. What was the result? Why, simply that when these Northern men had been used as long as there was a possibility of forcing the Democracy to take a candidate satisfactory to the Americans, their Southern coadjutors, at the last hour, remorselessly sacrificed them, abandoned their association, and went over in a body to the Democratic Pro-Slavery candidate and platform. Messrs. WINTHROP, BOCOCK, CHAMBERS, HAVEN & Co. have probably come to the conclusion by this time that there is no faith to be placed by Northerners in political associations with Southern men, unless the former, having done all else, are ready to avow that Slavery is a blessed institution, to be extended and perpetuated with all the energy of a Free Government.

WHY EVANS WAS DEFEATED.

The caucus of last evening was rather unfortunate, I think, in some of its arrangements. The nomination of FREMON S. EVANS, as Sergeant-at-Arms, was of at least doubtful propriety. He is believed by many to be a Pro-Slavery or 12th section "American," having stumped Virginia, it is said, as a Know-Nothing against Gov. WISE. He is claimed by some of our friends, however, as an Anti-Nebraska and Anti-Slavery man,—but this uncertainty in regard to his position, and the unexpectedness of his nomination, which took everybody by surprise, induced a lukewarmness in his behalf which rendered it easy for the Democrats to reflect A. J. GLOSSBRENNER, the nominee of the Nebraska caucus.

THE NEW POSTMASTER.

ROBERT C. MORRIS, the new Postmaster of the House, is a grand-son of ROBERT MORRIS, of Revolutionary fame, was formerly a Clerk in the Post-Office Department, and was removed to make room for a partisan of the Pierce Administration. His predecessor, and opposing candidate, Mr. JOHNSON, has held the place, I am told, for twelve years. As he is in comfortable circumstances, it is but right that he should give place to a new man.

FAIRY DIVISIONS—SLAVERY INDEPENDENCE.

As soon as the contest for the Speakership opened, you will perceive that parties instantly divided upon the line of hostility to the existing Administration, throwing together much the largest party in the negative. This division is likely to be made often on many occasions—although upon the Kansas question and all sectional issues, of course Southern men will act together, and, as usual, carry with them a few dough-faces from the North. JOHN WENTWORTH has got back again among the Pro-Slavery slave Democracy—and, like all backsliders, will probably be the most obstinate in his wickedness. JOHN PETTIT proposes he is "very d——d independent"—and illustrated the idea by voting for WM. ALLEN, when it was thought he could be elected. If he ever hopes to run for Congress again, I suppose his constituents will like to hear his reasons for such a course; unless he deems it impertinent to ask them.

THE SPEAKER ELECTION.

There is to be some trouble about electing a Speaker to the House, I am afraid. NEW-YORK has a candidate in the person of "SAM" HAVEN, of Syracuse. Ohio had two, Col. SHERMAN, of Cincinnati, and Mr. FLORENCE, of Columbiana, leaders of the pro-slavery coalition of that State. The latter, however, has been defeated in his own district, and I fear he will be hissed. Gen. CAMPBELL, the Democratic nominee, is personally very popular, and can be elected if there is any division among the Anti-Administration men. The election will probably come off to-morrow.

CENTRAL AMERICA.

Senator FOOTE's speech, to-day, on the Central American question, was able, interesting and forcible. He was listened to with profound attention. He did not indicate any special remedy for Britain's violation of her treaty, but did what was more important, declared his determination, for one, to hold England to strict accountability.

THE TARIFF.

The bill to reduce the duties on Imports, of which Senator JAMES gave notice to-day, does not propose a revision of the Tariff, but numerous additions to the Free List, of crude articles and raw materials used by manufacturers of all kinds. No legislation on the Tariff is likely to succeed during the present session.

WASHINGTON GAYETIES.

Society is lively this week with balls, parties and other gayeties. Last evening General J. WATSON WEBB gave one of the most elegant and brilliant parties of the season. To-night there are similar entertainments at Secretary DAVIS' and Mr. PENNINGTON's, while the lady guests of Willard's Hotel and the crowded circle of friends, have a very fine ball, which is crowded with the beauty and fashion of the metropolis. To-morrow begins the season of Lent, and ends the principle gayeties of the Winter, although the Hotel "hops" will continue through the season.

ISAAC COOMBS, a Lieutenant of Police in New-York City, was to-day appointed an Assistant Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives, upon recommendation of Hon. GUY R. PELTON.

Hon. Mr. WARNER's absence from the Representative Hall, on Saturday last, was no loss of strength to the Anti-Nebraska men, as he had paired off with a Louisiana Democrat. S.

Serious Illness of John W. Forney—Movements of Mr. Buchanan

WASHINGTON, Thursday, Feb. 7.

Mr. FORNEY is dangerously ill with inflammation of the bowels. His illness is supposed to have been produced by the excitement and over-exertion incident upon the discharge of his late duties as Clerk of the House.

Mr. BUCHANAN, in a private letter to a friend, in Washington, states that it is his intention, on the arrival of his successor, to set out for a two-months trip on the Continent of Europe.

Central America—Boundary between New-Granada and Costa Rica.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Thursday, Feb. 7.

In connection with the long standing discussion relative to the affairs of Central America, and the question of boundary lines between Costa Rica and Nicaragua, a new claim has been put in by New-Granada, laying pretensions in the same boundary, which Costa Rica claims, through the instrumentality of the late FELIPE MOLINA, who published an interesting and comprehensive work on that subject. New-Granada, while expressing her readiness to settle English all the territory on the coast from Cape Gracias A Dios to the extreme south, insists that the front of land so exclusively claimed by the late Minister of Costa Rica, Molina, and always has belonged, to New-Granada, in virtue of titles conferred upon her by former treaties between the Republic of Colombia and the former United Provinces of Central America.

Fire in Washington Navy Yard—Loss $2,000.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, Feb. 7.

The flank shop, in the Washington Navy Yard, was accidentally destroyed by fire this morning. The estimated loss is $2,000.

The Democratic Mass Meeting at Concord—Large Attendance.

CONCORD, N. H., Thursday, Feb. 7.—6 P. M.

The Democrats of Merrimac County held an immense meeting in this city this afternoon. It has been snowing violently all day, yet multitudes of people have poured into the place and filled Phoenix and Depot Halls to overflowing. At the former place speeches were made by Cols. WELLS of California, ORR of South Carolina, and Gen. LANE of Oregon; and at the latter by Gov. COBB of Georgia, Mr. LOVEJOY of Massachusetts, and by Hon. JOHN S. WELLS of this State.

The Democrats claim, notwithstanding the storm, equal if not superior numbers to the Opposition meeting on Tuesday.

The speaking will be resumed this evening, when large additional delegations from other places will be present.

Fatal Accident on the Michigan Southern Railroad—Four Men Killed and Several Injured—Baggage and Mails Burned.

HILLSDALE, (Mich.,) Thursday, Feb. 7.

A collision occurred on the Michigan Southern Railroad, a few miles west of this place last night, between the Western Express trains. [illegible] were killed and [illegible] were badly scalded, and several others injured, some of them severely. The baggage and mail cars were burned. The express car of the Eastern train was burned, with all the baggage and the mails.

One Corporal and Five Privates Fired Upon by Indians—Five Men Killed or Captured.

The Tampa Peninsular gives further intelligence of Indian butcheries in southern Florida, and latest reports of depredations in the settlements. The people of Florida, it matter well be supposed, are more dazed than ever over their extermination or removal from the State. Known to communication in the same paper, we learn that people in the head of Manatee river, a region very much exposed, have taken refuge in Braden's block-house, and the settlers on the Miami, who had forsaken their homes to find a secure retreat from the savage foe, are now returning to their farms.

After such evidences of the blood-thirsty character and determination of the savages, the people of Florida, it matter well be supposed, are more decided than ever in their opposition to removal from the State. Known to communication in the same paper, we learn that people in the head of Manatee river, a region very much exposed, have taken refuge in Braden's block-house, and the settlers on the Miami, who had forsaken their homes to find a secure retreat from the savage foe, are now returning to their farms.
